

Triple P - Positive Parenting Program

Provider Newsletter

Edition 17, July 2010

From the Project Director's Desk: "That's a Wrap!"

From Dr. Cheri Shapiro: Program Director for the Triple P South Carolina Initiative

As the saying goes, all good things must come to an end. Here at Building Connections we are in the process of ending our project. Together, we have accomplished a tremendous amount. This issue is devoted to some of our highlights.

First, after years of training around the state, we have a number of excellent and capable trained Triple P - Positive Parenting Program providers who are continuing to help families in their communities. Their work will continue long after our project ends. We salute their dedication and hard work!

How many accredited providers do we have? Check out the chart to see how they break out by county.

How many Triple P tip sheets have we supplied to you?

How many Triple P Positive Parenting Program booklets have been distributed?

How many Triple P Family workbooks have been supplied?

How many Triple P Group workbooks?

Check out the table on the next page for the numbers, and remember, if you need resupply, we still have plenty available. Details on how to order more supplies can be found on the back of this newsletter.

We have also made an impact on providers and scientists well beyond South Carolina through our published works.

Here are a few highlights:

We are the first to show that providing broad based, widely accessible parenting information and support can have a real impact on the lives of children and families.

In the counties where we have disseminated Triple P, we have documented a positive impact on rates of problems such as the number of young children entering out-of-home placements, being treated for injuries related to child abuse, and the number of founded cases of child abuse.

Small Changes, Big Differences

Triple P wraps up ...

Triple P - Positive Parenting Program

Tip Sheets	155,547
Spanish Tip Sheets	4,296
Positive Parenting Booklet	6,093
Spanish Positive Parenting Booklet	189
Every Parent's Family Workbook	1,701
Every Parent's Group Workbook	2,422
Supplemental Workbook	171

We have learned that providers use Triple P more often when they get positive feedback from families, when they consult with other Triple P providers after training, and when they experience few barriers to implementation. We have also learned that when families of young children undergo brief consultation for behavior problems that they are able to reduce problem behaviors in the specific situations that they sought help for, as well as in settings that were not targeted for treatment.

We extend our grateful thanks to all the providers who have continued to use Triple P with the families they see. Rest assured, your efforts are not in vain. By using Triple P, you have not only made difference in the lives of the families you've touched, but you've contributed to a larger movement that is improving the lives of families around the world. We hope that you can be proud of the effort and results of this project, and will continue to be a part of the Triple P - Positive Parenting Program.

Now is the perfect time to order resupply items!

Are you running low on tip sheets? Is your stack of Parent Workbooks shrinking? Is it getting harder to find an extra copy of the Group Workbook? If so, it could be time for you to re-order Triple P supplies. Don't worry, it's not a difficult process. In fact, it's quite easy. All you need is a Web browser, a printer, a pen, and a fax machine and you're all set.

Your first step is to head over to our Web site, specifically this page:

<http://tpinfo.sc.edu/practitioners/resupply.html>

The page you're headed to is depicted to the right, so if you see this, you know you're in the right place!

If you can't cut and paste that Web site address, simply go to our Web site at <http://www.tpinfo.sc.edu> and click on the link "For Providers" at the top of the page; from there click on the link "Resupply Request" on the left side of the page. That will take you to the page shown at right.

There you'll find our order forms for each level, Level 2/3 Primary Care, Level 4 Standard and Group, Level 5 Enhanced and Seminar. Click on the form you need, print it, fill it out and fax it to our office at (803) 978-7410.

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "The Triple P - Positive Parenting Program in South Carolina - Windows Internet Explorer provided by Yahoo!". The address bar shows the URL <http://tpinfo.sc.edu/practitioners/resupply.html>. The page content includes the Triple P logo with the tagline "for every parent". A navigation menu at the top right contains links for "Home", "For Providers", "For Parents", "Find Providers", and "Media". The main heading is "Resupply Requests". Below this, there is a paragraph: "Please select the form below for the intervention level for which you are requesting resupply. You may complete the form(s) online, print and fax or mail. You may also save the completed form to your desktop and send as an email attachment." Below this text is a note: "Forms require Adobe Reader." and a small Adobe Reader icon. At the bottom, there are four buttons for selecting the intervention level: "Level 2/3 Primary Care", "Level 4 Standard & Group", "Level 5 Enhanced", and "Seminar". On the left side of the page, there is a red sidebar with the heading "Provider Links" and several links: "Promotional Material", "Provider Newsletters", "Parent Newsletters", "Resupply Request", "Triple P Success Stories", "Providers by County", "Update Contact Info", and "International Triple P".
